Technology supporting Icon Updating

At Bellagio, we began to assess and update our icons. Cip created online tools as well as the Version 3 set's font.

The screenshot shows the 'think global! GREEN MAP Icon Update' website. It features a navigation bar with 'Local Resources', 'Icon Input', 'Forum', and 'News'. The main content area is titled 'Updating the Green Map Icons' and includes sections for 'Login', 'Public resources', 'Credits', and 'Process Schedule'. The 'Process Schedule' section lists key milestones from September to Spring. At the bottom, there is a large row of various icons and a footer with copyright information and the webmaster's name, Ciprian Samoilă.

This image displays the 'Green Map Icons Version 3' icon set. The icons are organized into a grid with the following categories: Sustainable Living, GREEN ECONOMY, TECHNOLOGY & DESIGN, MOBILITY, HAZARDS & CHALLENGES, Nature, LAND & WATER, FLORA, FAUNA, OUTDOOR ACTIVITIES, Culture & Society, CULTURAL CHARACTER, ECO - INFORMATION, JUSTICE & ACTIVISM, and PUBLIC WORKS & LANDMARKS. Each category contains a collection of small, stylized icons representing various concepts. A footer note states: '* Standard Icon Set. Green Map icons copyright Green Map System, Inc. 2008. All rights reserved. Green Map is a registered trademark and service mark of Green Map System, Inc.'

Supporting Social Justice and First Nations in Canada

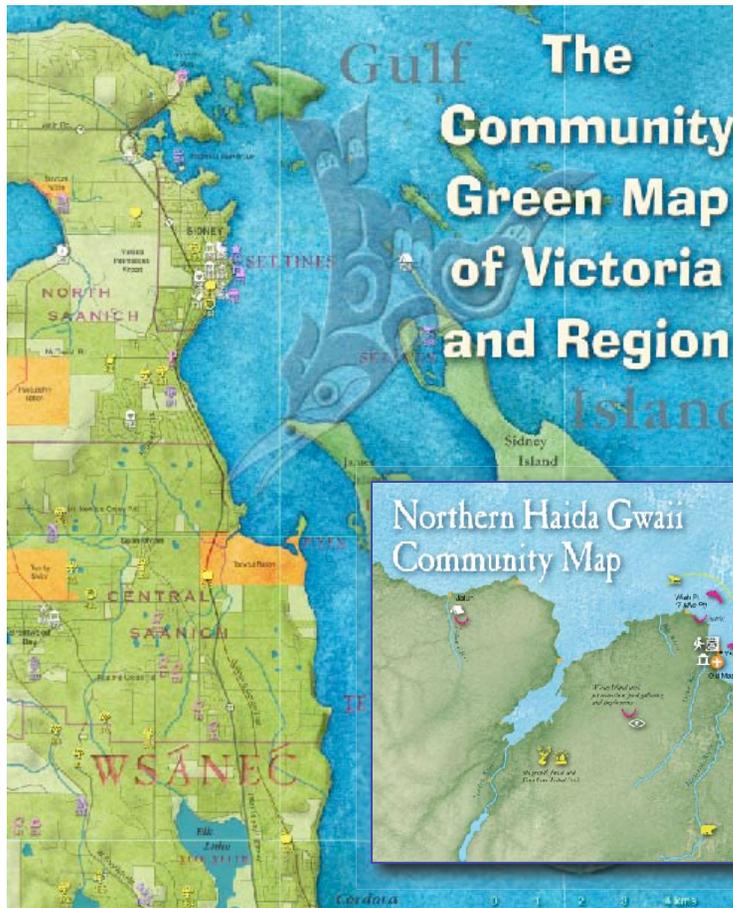

Maeve, Canada

All sectors are 'at the table' in Victoria BC

After producing the first map of Victoria with First Nations place names, Maeve's team helped the Haida Gwaii chart sacred places.

A dozen diverse communities have also made Green Maps, including Binnars (can recyclers)!

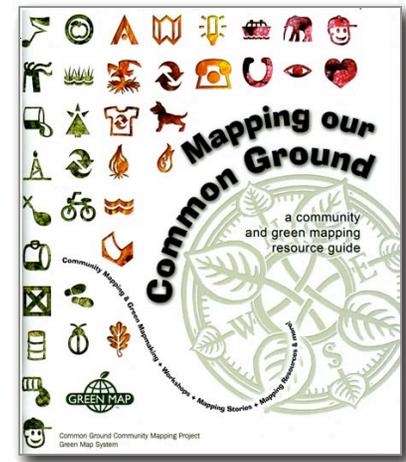

Now, the project's impacting academic networks

2008's Community University Expo at Uvic provided Green Mapmakers from the Americas the opportunity to engage the global community research network.

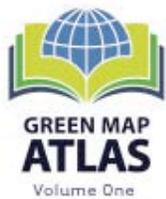

Maeve's thesis is a popular download at GreenMap.org/universities. Mapping our Common Ground was edited by Maeve, too.

Preventing over-development was Pune Green Map's aim

Anand contributed to the Green Map Atlas, another direct outcome of our Bellagio gathering, published in Japanese and English, and later in Chinese by Taiwanese Mapmakers.
