

The Future We Want

On December 15 and 16, the United Nations Commission on Sustainable Development will Meet in New York City to plan Rio+20, the 2012 Earth Summit.

The people must be heard.

Friday, December 16

Please join us at events around the city:

Beginning at Dag Hammarskjold Plaza

1-2:30pm

Rally for the Future We Want

A youth rally to show our leaders the "Future We Want"

With speakers from youth-led environmental and social justice mobilizations around the world including: Occupy Wall Street, MobilizeUS!, UN Major Group for Children and Youth, Peace Child International, sustainAFRICA, WeCanada, and more.

Come wearing blue and/or green and with your signs of the Future YOU Want!

A March to Times Square

3-4pm Party for Positive Progress for the Planet

A party for the Future We Want with art and music, public outreach, and interviews.

Come in costume and with musical instruments, ready to party for renewable energy, sustainability education, poverty eradication, and the creation of the Future We Want at a transformative Rio+20 Earth Summit!

Liberty Plaza/Zuccotti Park

4:30-6pm

#Occupy Green Economy Teach-In

Speakers and Action in re: alternative economies, conscious consumerism, green energy, and more!

Creative Prep Workshop #2:

Wednesday, December 14
6-8 pm at Global Kids Office
137 E. 25th St., 2nd Floor, NYC

For more information:

Contact Alex White at outreach@humanimpactsinstitute.org
860.227.4534

Brought to you by:

